Q&A AFTER THE PERFORMANCE

YuEun Gemma Kim

Award-winning South Korean violinist YuEun Gemma Kim performs internationally as soloist and chamber musician on both modern and baroque instruments. A USC graduate under Midori Goto, she has appeared with ensembles such as Delirium Musicum, American Bach Soloists, Boulder Bach Festival, and Voices of Music. She is a top-prize winner at the Boulder International Chamber Music Competition and recipient of the Jeffrey Thomas Award. As a core member of Delirium Musicum, she helped create MusiKaravan, winner of San Francisco Classical Voice's Audience Choice Award. YuEun also co-founded the duo Yu & I and serves as Artist-in-Residence with Musica Angelica Baroque Orchestra. Her YouTube performance of Chopin's Nocturne has over 23 million views.

Sheng-Ching Hsu

Taiwanese violinist Sheng-Ching Hsu is a passionate advocate for music's power to connect and heal. During the pandemic, she founded S-C Sidewalk Performance, bringing weekly live music to West LA streets—featured by Fox 11 Los Angeles, EliteGen Magazine, and in a documentary by Aria's Lens (China). Based in Los Angeles, she performs with Delirium Musicum, New Asia Chamber Music Society, California Symphony, and New West Symphony, and serves as guest principal 2nd violin of St. Matthew's Chamber Orchestra. A dedicated educator and arranger, she teaches at CSU Long Beach and Colburn Community School. Sheng-Ching holds degrees from Juilliard, Mannes, and Stony Brook University, where she earned her Doctor of Musical Arts.
